

Post Olympic Crusades In Brazil

Less than a month after the closing ceremony for the 2016 Summer Olympics, I conducted three crusades and several other evangelistic meetings in the Olympic host country of Brazil. The Olympic Games had ended, the international spectators were gone, and the daily TV coverage of the sporting competitions was over. However, what the Olympic athletes accomplished during the games dimmed in comparison to what our Savior did during the crusade services. The Lord drew crowds of people after each of our evangelistic services to accept Him publicly as Savior and Lord. People's lives were changed for eternity by Jesus Christ and the power of His gospel. During the Olympic Games people from around the world cheered and celebrated the victories of their athletes and the medals they received. Each night during the crusades in Brazil, I could not help but think it was the angels in heaven celebrating the saved soul of each lost sinner that repented and placed saving faith in Jesus Christ.

Training Haitian Pastors and Church Leaders

Recently, I was the keynote speaker at the national Baptist conference for pastors and church leaders which was held in the newly dedicated sanctuary of Titanyen Baptist Church in Titanyen, Haiti. The massive new sanctuary seats over 3,000 people, and on the last day of the conference, the building was full. It was an honor to challenge pastors and church leaders from across Haiti in the areas of evangelism and missions. One of the best ways to multiply my effectiveness in reaching the lost world as an evangelist, is to not only evangelize myself, but also to invest in the training of pastors, missionaries, evangelists, and church leaders around the world. During the conference I also shared the gospel with the attendees and gave them an opportunity to publicly receive Jesus Christ as their Savior and Lord. More than 150 people responded and were saved. It may seem unusual to hear about people being saved at a church leaders' conference, but we regularly see pastors and church leaders being saved as we share the true gospel around the world.

Revival in America

October 2-5, I led revival services in Picayune, MS, at Roseland Park Baptist Church. During the four night revival, 17 people publicly accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior and Lord. People ask me all the time why we do not see mighty moves of God in America any more. The answer is we are not preparing ourselves and churches for revival. RPBC did prepare for revival and God sent it.
